

Britain 2019

Recommended Reading before the Trip

In the Footsteps of William Wallace in Scotland & Northern England

Alan Young & Michael Stead, 2010 (many beautiful color photographs)

How the Scots Invented the Modern World

Arthur Herman, 2001

3 Novels by Sir Walter Scott:

Waverly (1814)

Rob Roy (1817)

Ivanhoe (1819)—more English than Scottish in setting/plot/characters

Kidnapped (set in Edinburgh and the Scottish Highlands)

Robert Louis Stevenson, 1886 (born and educated in Edinburgh)

The Secret Garden (set on the Yorkshire moors)

Frances Hodgson Burnett, 1911

Wuthering Heights (set on the Yorkshire moors)

Emily Bronte, 1847

The Adventures of Sherlock Holmes

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, 1891-92 (born and educated in Edinburgh)

Peter Pan

J.M. Barrie, 1904 (born in Scotland and educated in Edinburgh)

Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone

J.K. Rowling, 1998 (lives in Edinburgh and wrote the first two HP books there)

Poetry by Robert Burns (“Auld Lang Syne,” “To a Mouse,” “Tam o’ Shanter”)